

Super Challenge 3

How do you spell that?

Some words are spelt with a silent letter, that is a letter that you don't pronounce when you say the word. For example, the silent letter in gnome is g, and the silent letter in knight is k.

There is a silent letter in each of these words.

Do you know what it is?

Fill in the blank space with the missing letter and then check in your dictionary to see if you were right.
